Unattended Funeral

What is an Unattended Funeral?

An unattended funeral, sometimes referred to as a direct cremation or burial, is a simple and dignified service where no family or friends are present at the time of the cremation or burial. This option allows for a respectful farewell without a formal ceremony, and can be a thoughtful choice for those who prefer a private goodbye or wish to hold a separate memorial service at a later date. At Agape Funeral Service, we ensure your loved one is treated with the utmost care and compassion, even in the quietest of farewells.
